

Snowshoe Elementary

Q. How can parents and caregivers help their child be prepared for school?

Parent responses:

- I will make sure to check their backpacks to make sure they have necessary gear and homework.
- I will listen to my child and encourage their learning by promoting a positive attitude as they leave for school.
- I will be supportive of my child and support school expectations.
- I understand the importance of a good night's rest.
- I will communicate with my child's teacher regarding academic and/or behavioral progress.

Q. What can students do to get the most out of their education?

Student Responses:

- I will be responsible for my own school work and homework.
- I will make sure I have all my gear and homework before I leave for school in the morning.
- I will always give my best effort, completing and turning in my work on time.
- I will show respect towards my teachers and other student learning.

Q. What can teachers and staff do to support students and families?

Teacher responses:

- I will provide positive feedback for academic growth and excellent behavior.
- I will encourage learning by providing structured learning activities.
- I will keep your child engaged by providing opportunities for all students to respond to their learning.
- I will communicate with parents about your child's academic and behavioral goals, achievements and potential areas of growth.
- I will provide a safe and positive learning environment for your child.

School, Student & Parent Compact

Snowshoe Elementary School is committed to children and the community. We know there are three elements in a student's life that will help them become successful in school and beyond. Quality Instruction, Parental Support, and Student Participation. This compact is an agreement between all parties that a child's education is an important part of our community, state and national success. We also agree that we will support our children to become active and healthy members of our society.

As a parent, I will support my child in their education. _____

As a teacher, I will provide a quality education. _____

As a student, I will play an active role in my education. _____

As the principal, I will do everything I can to support your child's education and encourage parent participation in the education process.
