Welcome to the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Scholarship Opportunities Homepage. All applicants must be citizens of the United States and must attend or plan to attend an accredited college or university in the United States. DAR chapter sponsorship is not required; however, a DAR member may be used as a reference or may assist you with your application.

You will be presented with the general application after logging in. The application process is open from August 1st until February 15th at 12 midnight (Eastern Standard Time) of each calendar year. Please note: You can save your application by clicking "Save and keep Editing" at the bottom of the application page. Once you have completed your application you can click "Finish and Continue" at the bottom of the page.

Below is a list of scholarship opportunities offered from the DAR at this time. Each scholarship opportunity has its own individual criteria and guidelines along with a required cumulative GPA. The scholarships range from General (No specific major), Nursing, English, Science, Math, Law, Music, History, Horticulture, American Indians (You must be able to prove Indian heritage), and Business Administration.

As you prepare to begin your online scholarship application offered by the DAR, please have the following documents and information ready to enter and/or upload into our system. All submitted information should be typed or computer generated.

- A personal statement of 1,000 words or less setting forth the your career objectives.
- A recent copy of your high school transcript (must indicate class rank, size, and test scores if available) or college grades (as applicable). Major must be indicated on your most recent transcript where a specific major is required. Home schooled students must include transcripts for grade nine through current year. If selected as a scholarship recipient and official sealed copy mailed to DAR will be required.
- Information required by specific scholarships such as financial need information or a letter of acceptance into a special program or a transcript stating you are in a special program like nursing or medicine.
- Proof of United States citizenship; please photocopy one of the following documents: a birth certificate, naturalization papers, or the information page of your United States Passport. Cover all photographs. If listed, please blackout social security numbers.
- A listing of you extra-curricular activities, honors received, and scholastic achievements. The information to be uploaded should not exceed one side of a 8 1/2 inch by 11 inch piece of paper.
- A statement of 100 words or less why you would be a worthy candidate to receive a DAR Scholarship.

You will also be asked to provide contact information for letters of recommendation, for at least two but not to exceed four individuals from your high school or college now attending. Letters should convey your ability, work habits, integrity, character, potential, and volunteer activities.

If you are awarded a DAR scholarship you will receive an email from the National DAR Scholarship Chairman at the email address you provided in your application by May 15th of the year your application was submitted. Only applicants selected to receive a DAR Scholarship will be notified. You can also check the status of your application by logging into the system at any time.
