

Teeland Middle School Washington D.C. 2019

Behavior Contract

As a condition of having been accepted to go on this trip you agreed to abide by the Teeland Middle School behavior expectations. However it is time to speak directly to the expected conduct while we are on the trip.

As a Teeland Middle school student you will be expected to represent our school in a manner that exhibits the upmost respect toward each other and others. As an ambassador of our school, your behavior is a direct reflection on all of us. From the time that we enter the public arena at the Ted Stevens International Airport till the completion of our adventure, you will remember to be courteous, respectful, and considerate of all others.

Specifically this looks like:

- Following the reasonable requests of all chaperones, parents, guides at all times.
- Finding and getting in your seat on the airplane, bus, restaurants, and theaters in a timely manner.
- Keeping your voice volume at a respectable level as to not interrupt or disrupt others. At certain memorials you may be expected to go to voice volume level zero.
- Paying respectful attention to the various informative speakers and guides.
- Walking and not running at sites.
- Being patient and not cutting in lines at gift stores or restaurants.
- Making sure that you are at the designated rendezvous points on time.

These are expectations that you must consent to in order to participate in our trip. If you agree, please complete the section below.
