

German II

Standard 1: Communication

Students communicate in a World Language while demonstrating literacy in all four essential skills:

1.1 Listening - Students listen to and derive meaning from a variety of World Language sources.

Rationale: Students listen to and comprehend information spoken in a World Language.

In order to meet this standard a student:

- recognizes common expressions
- obtains meaning from diverse listening sources
- demonstrates comprehension through appropriate responses
- engages in a variety of listening situations

1.2 Speaking - Students speak in a World Language for a variety of purposes and for a variety of audiences.

Rationale: The ability to speak other languages allows students to communicate with people from various cultures.

In order to meet this standard a student:

- applies pronunciation rules and intonation patterns
- uses vocabulary, grammatical forms, and structures of the selected language to convey meaning
- Applies knowledge of cultural practices to spoken language
- expresses needs, tells stories, obtains and conveys information, explains concepts and procedures, and persuades
- interacts with speakers of the language in a variety of venues: personal business, debate panels, dramatic presentations

MSBSD World Languages Content Standards

1.3 Reading - Students read and derive meaning from a variety of materials written in a World Language.

Rationale: Reading in a World Language gives students access to information and expands their knowledge. This ability provides students with the opportunity to learn about cultures and the human experience.

In order to meet this standard a student:

- recognizes words, phrases, idiomatic expressions, and grammatical structures
- demonstrates comprehension of reading materials written for a variety of purposes
- uses and applies the information gained from reading
- responds to the cultural elements contained in reading materials of the language

1.4 Writing - Students write in a World Language for a variety of purposes and for diverse audiences.

Rationale: Writing allows students to express themselves, to communicate with others, and to document ideas in a World Language.

In order to meet this standard a student:

- writes for purposes such as relating personal experiences, obtaining and conveying information, explaining ideas and opinions, and persuading
- writes for audiences such as peers, teachers, community members, and people from other countries
- plans, drafts, revises, proofreads, and edits written communications
- uses correct grammar, sentence structure, vocabulary, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization to convey meaning
- uses legible handwriting and/or word processing

Standard 2: Culture

Students acquire and use knowledge of cultures while developing World Language skills.

Rationale: Language learners are culture learners as well. Students need to develop an understanding of the cultures in which the language is spoken, and the ability to function in an appropriate manner.

In order to meet this standard a student:

- demonstrates knowledge of aspects of world cultures such as daily life, education, history, geography, government, economics, and the arts.
- applies knowledge of cultural practices when communicating in a World Language
- uses the World Language to access cultural information available only in that language

Course Outline

German II

Course Description:

German II furthers the study of grammar, vocabulary and an understanding of the culture through movies, videos and magazines. Students improve listening, speaking, reading and writing skills. Students begin to develop reading comprehension skills through short stories, plays and poetry.

Course Beliefs:

We believe that our students must be prepared to face the challenges of an increasingly pluralistic society. Acquiring a World Language will equip them to participate in our global community and empower them to meet the challenges of the 21st century:

- Lifelong Learning - The skills required to acquire a World Language are basic to the learning process.
- Higher Achievement - A higher level of skill is demanded of all workers in a global community.
- Economic Necessity - In order to ensure our own future, we must be able to communicate with the rest of the world.
- Multicultural Perspective - World Languages open doors not only to other languages, but also to other cultures, people, and lands.

Instructional Strategies:

- Identifying similarities and differences
- Summarizing and note taking
- Reinforcing effort and recognition
- Homework and Guided Practice
- Nonlinguistic Representations
- Graphic Organizers
- Cooperative Learning Groups
- Providing Feedback
- Generating and testing hypotheses
- Cues, questions, and advance organizers
- Formative & Summative Assessments
